Season's Greetings

Hard to believe it's Xmas time already. And it's been a good year. We welcomed two new grand-kids, Marge is visiting down in Texas now for a 1st B.D. Dan - Julie had a boy in Jan 01.

I drove to Da/Mn in late Oct & we had a family gathering. I was able to observe mom's functioning and she will need more services to remain in her own place. I also visited Laurence & Rosemary Yelman and looked at a lot of old family photos. They have Walter's old album. and when is the next Klapperich - Theobald reunion?

Lee Offutt AFB had a special master on 9-11. I've been there a couple times too.

With remembrance

and best wishes

for this Holiday Season

and the New Year

Have a nice holiday

Mar. 25, 2004

Dear Mary,

Would you believe, here it is near the end of March + I'm finally answering my Christmas mail. Dick wanted to leave for AZ. right after Christmas. There was enough pressure on me before Christmas anyway; so some things didn't get done. I took all my Christmas mail with me to AZ. thinking I would have time to answer letters while relaxing by the pool!! Well it was too cold for that + we were kept very busy with our 2 children + their family activities.

As soon as we arrived back in MN. the phone started ringing + we have been on the go ever since. Next year we're not telling anybody when we'll be back. Also Mom ended up in the hospital because of the flu + broken ribs + a bad cough. I was surprised that you said in your Christmas card that you didn't know our Mom was in the Nursing Home. I know I wrote you about ~~about~~ here falling in her apt. + breaking her arm + then having to move to the Stacyville Nursing Home. If you didn't get that letter then I better send you an update on our growing family. (Seperate Sheets).

I kept asking some of our Mueller relatives about a reunion last summer, but it didn't happen. Is it about time for a Klapperich one?
Enclosed is a copy of a sheet my brother Gene sent me last fall. I haven't made the connection to those Klapperich's in Stearns Co. MN. That area is called the "Holy Land" of MN. St. Cloud MN. being the center.
I just reread your Christmas letter from 2000 where you said you had attented an Elderhostel on Lewis + Clark and the Nez Perce Indians. I just finished reading Undaunted Courage by Stephen E. Ambrose. Very, very interesting. I had been looking for a story about Sacagawea and thus read about Lewis & Clark.

The last gen. update I have from you is 1999. I'm sending you copies of a batch of obits. that I found. Obituaries always reveal something extra. Also a little about finding Marvin Mueller. His companion, Helga contacted the State Dept. & thus the family. So those Mueller had their own reunion.

I would like to explain a family ~~entry~~ story that I can't find a form to fill out. Our daughter June gave birth to a son when she was 18. She named him Michael Joseph Leonard. When he turned 18 yrs. he changed his last name to Riker (his dad). Sometimes we write his name as Michael Leonard/Riker. Then June married David Lowe in 1989 & they had a son Jordan Lowe in 1991.

They divorced in 1995. In 1997 she married Dennis Lilikes. They live in Mesa AZ. with the 2 boys. How do you enter that data.

My Mom is doing OK. She will be 90 yrs. old July 10th. She suffers from many old age symtoms so her health is declining slowly.

Another enty: Our daughter Louann married Paul Seguin PHD on Aug. 24, 2001 in Minnetonka, MN.

I just remembered I have a print-out of our family from a cousin on my mothers side so I'll send that also.

Well, it took me almost a week to gather all this stuff - but some of my genealogy got straighted out.

So take care and maybe we see each other this summer.

— Mary

Dear Mary,

After a very busy weekend in Meyer, I'm back home, resting + catching up. + have a fairly good sized garden.

Mom has decided to have an auction this fall. It will be at the fairgrounds in Osage. My brothers Gene + Don will be home over Labor Day + the week following. They will clean the garage + barn.

Interesting stories are told as we dig out artifacts. The dress Josephine wore for my wedding (Sept. 16, 1961) was still upstairs + it fit me, a little snug, but back in style! Maroon + white, with a broach at the throat!

Hope the rest of your trip was interesting.

Mary,

July 9, 1999

Dear Mary,

Here is some info I've been meaning to send you for some time. I have been waiting since Jan. for the family group sheets from the Albert Theobald - Margaret Klapperich and John Klapperich - Mamie Theobald families. I called Mary Cook - John's daughter for the info - she copied it out of a Theobald book - then lost it. I called about every 2 mos. and she keeps promising to sent it, but hasn't. So I give up.

Isabella called this noon. I don't know where those Huesmans are buried. They died in Mitchell Co. Iowa, but lived near the state line.

Are you leaving Sunday July 25th nite for your home? If you could stay, there is a microfilm of Mitchell County Vital Record at the History Center, Rochester. It includes Births 1880-1944, Deaths 1880-1921, Marr. 1860-1930 also the marriages are indexed from 1880-1903. I have not had a chance to view it. At cost $4.00 a day ~~max~~. Doesn't matter how long you stay, but you can leave for lunch. Hours Tues.-Sat. 9-5 pm.

A few notes -
Bernadine Jax is Sister Eamon
She lives in Dillon SC.
She is the only daughter of Catherine Sabo and Ed Jax of Austin

(Mary (Klapperich) Cook daughter of John + Mamie Klapperick. Her address is - 4006 16th Ave. NW
Rochester, MN. 55901
Phone 507-282-7287

Looking forward to seeing you. I'll bring all my genealogy for both Klapperichs + Muellers.

— Mary

Form 0393 9 78 5 — Printed in USA

Dear Mary,

I have copied and assembled what information Isabella Mann gave me on the older Mueller's.

Looking at Johann & Suzanna Müller's children, the only male that stayed in McHenry area was John W. Mueller born June 19, 1857. I don't know who he married, but in 1899 on the Golden Wedding article he was living in Spring Grove Ill. and had 7 children. Maybe we could find out more if the Mueller family reunion is held again this year.

We have had a few days of decent weather which give us hope of spring, but for the most part it is still winter.

I'm flying to AZ to see 2 of my kids & a grandchild, leaving Thurs. Looking forward to it.

Keep in touch,

Mary

MUELLER

William Mueller was born in August of 1852 in Johnsburg, Illinois. He was the son of Johann Mueller and Suzanna Schmitt. He was the third oldest of sixteen children all born in Johnsburg, Illinois.

William's father and grandfather came to the Johnsburg area from Langenfeld, Germany in May of 1847. This village is near Mayen which is like our County Administrative Headquarters. The next largest city is Koblenz. The entire area is known as "the Eifel". William's mother, Suzanna Schmitt and her parents came to the Johnsburg area in 1841 from Munk, Germany, a village near Langenfeld. They arrived on the ship "Albany" sailing from LeHarve, France. They arrived at the Port in New York on August 3, 1841. The Schmitt family is one of four of the original families that settled in the Johnsburg area and formed St John the Baptist Catholic Church.

Anna Maria Huemann was born January 1, 1858 in Johnsburg, Minnesota. She was the second child of Mathias Huemann and Christina Schneider. Her mother was from the village of Boos, Germany which is located near Langenfeld, Hirten and Munk. Christina was the daughter of Stephen and Anna Katherina Schneider. Anna Maria's older brother Peter was born in Hirten, Germany, a small village near Langenfeld and Munk. Peter and his parents left the Port of Bremen, Germany aboard the Ship "New York" and arrived in the Port of New York on Christmas Eve of 1855. The Huemann family first came to the McHenry and Johnsburg, Illinois area and in 1856 came to Minnesota.

GOLDEN WEDDING

John Mueller and Wife Married Fifty Years Ago.

ANNIVERSARY DULY COMMEMORATED.

Event Celebrated in Elegant Manner--Services at St. Mary's Church---Grand Feast at Home of Aged Couple--Many Friends Present from Here and Abroad---Beautiful Presents.

On Wednesday, May 17, 1899, John Mueller and wife of this village celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their married life. The event was due on May 5, but in order to accommodate their relatives in the West, who were busy with farm work at the time, they chose May 17 as the date for the celebration.

John Mueller and Miss Susanna Schmitt were married in a little log church in Johnsburgh May 5, 1849. The ceremony was performed by Father Portman. Sixteen children were born to the couple, of whom seven are living. Following are the names of the children who are living: William, whose home is at David, Iowa; Peter H, of Stacyville, Iowa; John W., who is a resident of Spring Grove; Mrs. John Lenzen of Fort Hill; Mrs. Jos. Mayer of Stacyville, Iowa; Miss Emma, who is at home, and Miss Lizzie, who resides in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Mueller also have 31 grand children. Mr. Mueller was born in Langenfeldt, Germany, on June 10, 1821, and is therefore nearly 78 years of age. He came to this country in 1847, settling near Johnsburgh. His wife was born in Munich, Germany, on Sept. 27, 1832, and is now in her 67th year. She came to America with her parents in 1841 and took up her abode near Johnsburgh. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mueller resided near Johnsburgh until a few years ago, when they moved to McHenry. By industry, frugality and good management the couple accumulated a competency sufficient to enable them to spend the remainder of their life in comfort.

SERVICES AT THE CHURCH.

At 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning high mass was celebrated at St. Mary's church in honor of the occasion, and the marriage vows made fifty years ago were repeated. It was a solemn event. So seldom do a husband and wife travel side by side for half a century that unusual interest was taken in the affair. Rev. F. Kirsch officiated and conducted a beautiful service. His address was full of deep meaning. Following were the mass servers:

Masters--
Geo. Schreiner,
Willie Heimer,

Masters--
Willie Stoffel,
Ernie Buch.

John Lenzen, Jr., acted as groomsman. The bridesmaid was Miss Josephine Mueller. Both are grand children of the couple. Twelve girls dressed in white formed part of the bridal group. These were.

The church was crowded with people. After the ceremony the couple of fifty years of wedded life redeived hearty congratulations.

THE FEAST AT THE HOME.

By special invitation many relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Mueller assembled at the home of the couple after the services at the church had ended and enjoyed a day of festivity. There were relatives and abroad. A pleasant feature of the gathering was the attendance of all the sons, the daughters, the sons-in-law, the daughters in law, and the grand children of the couple. Of the grand children, 6 are the children of Wm. Mueller and wife; 3 of P.H. Mueller and wife; 7 of John W. Mueller and wife; 11 of John Lenzen and wive; and 4 of Jos. Mayer and wife. The husband of a grand daughter, the only mattied grandchild, was also present.

Dinner and supper were served to the guests. A tent had been erected on the lawn for this occasion, and under it tables were set. The viands were delicious and there was an abundance of them. To give the reader an idea how well prepared Mr. Mueller was for the feast we may here observe that he had bought 400 pounds of various sorts of meats for this special purpose. Following was the menu.

The hours were spent in pleasant social discourse. Here relatives and friends had an opportunity to recall incidents of the past, and they did so to their heart's content.

Mr. and Mrs. Mueller were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents. These were appropriate remembrances of love and esteem.

It was late when the guests adjourned to their various homes. All felt that they had enjoyed the day immensely. Before taking their leave the guests wished the host and hostess many more years of life and happiness. The Journal expresses a similar wish.

NOTES CAUGHT BY A JOURNALER.

The relatives and friends from Iowa and Minnesota came on a special car. They started from McIntyre, Iowa, and went over the Great Western railroad as far as St. Charles, when they came the balance of the way over the North-Western They arrived in this village on Monday evening. Several who did not come to attend the golden wedding were in the party, as follows: Mrs. Joe Loescher and daughter Susie, Mrs. M. Heimer, Miss Annie Adams, Joe Ahrends and Andrew Meyerhoff. They are visiting friends here and at Johnsburgh. All the excursionists will remain here for several weeks.

There were four present who settled at Johnsburgh in 1841. They were Mesdames John Mueller, Nicholas Schaefer and John Schaefer, and Castor Adams.

Mr. Mueller has no living brothers, and but one living sister, Mrs. Catherine Klapperich. His wife has one brother, Nick Schmitt of Minnesota, and one sister, Mrs. Nicholas Schaefer, who still live.

Wm. Mueller presented his father with a memento for which he had to search a long time. It is a ten dollar gold piece bearing the date of 1849.

Many children not mentioned in this review were in attendance. All the children present had a jovial time playing on the lawn.

Letter to Isobella Mouse from Pauline Kennebeck Niemeyer

You have the appointment of collecting the odds and ends of the Mueller clan. Occasionally as I think of it I will send you interesting notes about our history, that information would be just as interesting as the dates and names.------

As mentioned on the goldenwedding story we got to consider the Mueller bunch - locally it may be by Miller. There is an endless bunch. Mrs S H Freund, Mrs Nick Freund, Klapperichs  their next older Generation are brother and sister of our Johan & Suzanna. Better buy out the wallpaper factory, 1 roll is not enough. Families go on forever. In giving this data stories should be added about those who were in service etc.

I have an army discharge (German) from grandpa Mueller. Will send in time then you can get it copied. Printed in German.

I remember the creamer-sugar deal. Also gave fancy cups & saucer to the Freund bunch - they were first cousins of ma's.
Aunt Josephine was sponsor for me - Joe Lenzen - Christine.
→ (Margie Meyer of Stacyville)

I have the original local paper in which the story of the golden wedding was. Took it to aunt Josephine 30 years ago. They copied it, brought it back. I still have it, is a bit worn.

I remember ma saying when Aunt Josephine came down for that wedding she got pneumonia and could not return with the crew on the choo-choo. When grandpa Mueller and the Schmitts came across there was a storm on the ocean. Schmitts, Muellers and Fretts made a vow if they arrived safe on land, they would build a chapel. This chapel is on Chapel Hill Road across the river just North of here. It is owned by the bishop now - relatives keep it up.

I did not know anyone up there was "hungry" for that old stuff. No one asked for it. Martha once told me she made up a chart of just their family.
You sent me a gold mine - why are you so worried about the $5 piece? Eventually will dig deeper. I think I have the original pix of uncle Bill's family like I knew them. Also have a family pix of aunt Josephines gang taken when Ed had his army unifor on. Also another of their's about time of their 50th. My ma had these.

That Chapel road deal  you talked about an old Mary Schmitt. She is from that Chapel Hill bunch. She never married. Taught school around here for years. Then went to be housekeeper for another Msgr Schmitt, might have been her brother. When he died 20 years ago she came to live here with2 sisters who married Lays. Then stayed with a sister, Agnes Freund at Johnsburg (still alive). Mary landed in the nursing home, a year ago she died - 100 years old. Agnes is still alive but getting old. Another sister married an Albert Miller who lived in Oklahome, all gone. Albert has a daughter living in next block. That was a big family. Mary was single. Could use a roll of wallpaper for that family alone. We are related. Every time Iowa people came, they went there, or he would stop in here to see them. His son still has their farm.

My father was married twice -- Anna Marie (Emma) Schaefer.
Anna Marie (Emma) Mueller.
Our Emma's mother was Suzanna Schmitt. Mueller.
Other Emma's mother was Gertrude Schmitt Schaefer.
That makes both wives as first cousing.
I am from the second batch - Emma Mueller.
I have 6 step-brothers and sisters from the Emma Schaefer.
One of their sons - I call him my nephew - Kenneth lives in Maryland. He is nuts about geneology. Goes to Europe to find stuff, he is retired too.

The 6 others call Gertrude Schaefer their grandmother. Right?

A year ago while looking for something in a closet I came across loads of pictures. Here was one of that Gertrude. Will send a copy of it to you. Here she was in this closet 30 years, not a squeak out of her.
Suzanna and Gertrude are sisters. Figure this out.
Which of us owns her. They might be on the same family tree.

My father's brother, Henry, married a Schaefer also, they claim Gertrude too.

Believe if we all got our buttons together we could make up quite a book. 50 years from now we should get another edition. Almost each one of us can provide several chapters. I have lots written somewhere. When I find it, will send more info. If Joan finds it, she will send to you.

Intend to return some pix I have to those in it. My kids don't know any of them. Joan remembers some of the stories.
Greg Thome told me when he was here a couple weeks ago, that his father has to crawl up steps. I do too.
Our neighbors in the other end of the block had QUADS a couple weeks ago. If I had to take care of that many, I would run away or give them away. Each weighed around 5 lbs.

Dear Cousin Mary Ann,

My printer is out of ink, so you must try to decipher this.

This obit should help fill in your genealogy. Marvin Mueller's father, Anton Mueller Jr, was a son of Michael (?) Mueller and Mary Catherine Klopfenich. Her father was Steffan Klopfenich and mother Gertrude Neis.

Mother loved to visit the Mueller farm when she was young, and my guess is that her brothers did too. I know the place on Kiel Road, a couple miles SW of Marytown. A brick oven still stands outside the kitchen door. I have some old snapshots with Marge and Karl climbing over farm equipment.

Mother kept in touch with Marvin's older sister, Liobe Wingers, who died in 1995. The Wingers ran a grocery in Marytown below the church.

It has been awful dry here, just ½" in 6 weeks. But nice weather otherwise. Daughter Ann is expecting our 9th grandchild this month.

Keep in touch.

Tom

Dear Cousin:

Sad news as you can see.

Your Christmas card, with reference to your ship manifest search for Anna Margaretha Wirtz (a/k/a Wurtz, Wurz), said something about a doctor — saying she had some with her parents.

Lucille's school autobiography said the parents were buried south of Fond du Lac in an abandoned cemetery, which I have never confirmed.

Who is this doctor? Another genealogist?

Yours,
Tom Slade

May 17, 2001

Dear Mary,

Thanks for the package. Great map!. I'd guess the grid is about 5 KM, making a 2 KM distance to church from Brolingen.

The surprise is Falkenberg in between, for the family intermarried with Falkenbergs. It was common for towns to be named for dominant families.

I enclose a crude translation of the historic letters I have. If someone can do better, I have typed originals from Sr Carlotta who read German well.

Also, enclosed is Peter's citizenship paper where he swore he arived in New York in July, 1842. That confirms your ship manifest.

I think the name you copy as Britzter on the manifest is better translated as Breisster. The German character for double ss looks more like fz than tz. If the english manaifest was prepared at origin, the name would have been written with the "fz" character.

Another variation of Wirtz is Werts, so check under WE too.

I'll be seeing Ed and Dick tomorrow and will show them the map. It may inspire one of us to visit Brolingen.

Best regards, Tom Grebe

FAMILY HEIRLOOM-LETTERS FROM GERMANY 1857 - 1859

Comment by Tom Grebe Nov. 1995

These are valuable! Never destroy, pass on to a Breister. Norman Breister or his mother, Peter Breister's daughter in law, sent the letters to Sr M Carlotta CSA to be translated when the first was already 100 years old.

Sister read German script with ease and understood it, perhaps typing a copy of each. The original of the later letter may be the one said to be in a Milwaukee museum, or there may be others. She marveled at the writer's perfect language, and asked whether it was Peter Breister's father who was said to have been a physician. Peter himself had a manuscript Latin/German missal given him on his confirmation, indicating he was very literate.

Several genealogical facts flow from the letters: While the writer Peter Blindert speaks to addressee Peter Breister as "brother", he clearly is a brother in law by marriage to Maria Eva Breister, Peter's sister. He lists their children as Maria, Anna Catharina, and Peter. The girls had received First Communion, likely at age 9 or 10. Peter was going on 6 years of age in May 1857. Blindert refers to the death in Aug 1856 of another brother in law "euer schwager', Johann Peter Falkenberg. That infers Peter Breister had another sister, apparently long-since dead because no mention of her is made. That couple apparently had a son under 21, Hubert Falkenberg. The Johann Falkenberg acting as guardian may be Hubert's uncle. If Blindert's reference to "the children of my dead sister and brother in law" refers to the Johann Peter Falkenberg family, as it must, then there must be two or more teenagers, likely male, because they were grown up enough to earn money for themselves. Hubert must be the firstborn son, and Anton second. In complaining about how cheap the brother in law was, Blindert likely is referring to the deceased rather than still another, for his next line refers to the orphans. In referring to the anniversary of Peter's mother and father, Blindert said he arranged to have masses read at the cathedral in Munstereifel, as is done only for deceased persons generally. The absence of any news about the folks suggests they died before 1853.

It appears that the Falkenbergs and Blinderts were old family friends back to the time of Peter Breister's baptism in 1817. The families must have lived during that period in Brolingen, a hamlet just south of Munstereifel (near Bonn). This conclusion is reinforced by all the news about other families in the town, which Breister left in 1842. Hummel must also be nearby, if Maria Eva's kids were confirmed there.

where they worshipped

P/s. It is: So is Falkenberg

Comment by Tom Grebe Nov. 1995

These are valuable! Never destroy, pass on to a Breister. Norman Breister or his mother, Peter Breister's daughter in law, sent the letters to Sr M Carlotta CSA to be translated when the first was already 100 years old.

The letter of Feb. 17, 1859 in the same style, though also signed by Peter Blindert, appears to have been written by his wife, suggesting both were. Besides referring to Peter Breister as brother (bruder), she says that God is keeping "mich und mein Ehemann" healthy. Ehemann translates as husband. The girls were old enough to be confirmed, 12 or 13. The letter also verifies that his sister from Hummel (Mrs von Falkenberg) had two children. Again, there is no news of their elder parents, likely deceased.

Aside from value in genealogy, the letters poignantly tell of the hard times and short life spans. The feudal system had disappeared by 1807, but vestiges remained, and the thought of 160 acres in Wisconsin would be tempting. It seems the potato blight that starved the Irish in the 1840's had reached the continent too. About that time, German crops were lost in "the year summer never came", likely due to a shift in the jet streams. Historically, the letters are priceless.

P/S A friend of Deanna Dietz translated Sister Carlotta's typed copy.

Dear Brother, Sister-in-law and Children:

As we noticed from your last letter, you all are well and healthy which makes us a pleasure. Your letter also met us in our best health. On June 5, 1853 I wrote to you a letter to Calmet. On August, 1853 I received the letter back. We learnt about some infectious desease spreading in the area so that we though you all unexpectedly died.

Our dear brother, your brother-in-law Johann Peter Falkenberg died last year in August. Now, we had to sell our rights to be able to pay all debts. The house was inherited by Hubert Falkenberg, but Johann Falkenberg with the captain are temporarily managing the house until Hubert will be mature. However, all the three do not get well along. Next year Anton Falkenberg considers a trip to America, if it will be possible. He has to pass his last conscription next year and after he is finished he considers to come here.

The dear brother in the family Schneider died, Johann Peter Schneider, Gertraud Schneider and her husband also died. Peter Nucken and his wife Veronica died before. Deny Martin Nucken married Margaretha Gerhards, Peter Nucken Marie Eva Schmitz. Peter Joseph Nucken, the shoemaker, married Marie Metzen von Marthal. Wilhelm Nucken married the sister of Marie Metzen von Marthal, Christine Metzen, Marie Eva Gerhards married Johann Besseler von Lindweilen.
Matzen, the wife of Hubert Chinaut von Marthal died. Marie Schneider, the wife of Jacob Geller died, as well. Also died the mother of Gertrud Esch.

Dear brother, Wilhelm Schäfer also left for America. If you know where he is, you can tell him that both his brother and sister Marie Eva nee Schäfer died. If Wilhelm Schäfer will be sending some letter here, he can write on Agnes Schäfer in Hümmel.

Dear brother, we are sorry, you all lost your things(property?) from your goodness as you mentioned in this as well as in the last letter, although we do not know what was the reason of it. Please, do give the reason in your next letter.

Dear brother, we would like to know what are doing all those who left for America, since we did not hear about them at all.

Dear brother, I did not forget you. Every Sunday I remember you in all my holy prayers and whenever I enter the church I pray to the Lord to give to you and your family all the possible holiness. We cannot do anything better for you. In this world we will not meet each other anymore so that we believe, we will see you in the Eternity. When you were still in Germany and prayed for your brother-in-law and presented him with gifts in Hummel, so long you were good. Now, you are away and consequently, forgotten by him. We had to pay six silver pennies for the last letter mailed to Calmet. I suggested to him (brother-in-law) that I will send the letter, if he will pay three pennies back. However, he failed to pay. He also brought nothing with him in the occasion of anniversaries of your father and mother. Therefore, I went to the Cathedral and let to read the mass for me and for your part during the observance. Münstereifel Hümmel?
The children of my sister and brother-in-law who died I always like as my own. We had a lot of compassion with them. Now, God be praised, they grown-up so far they can earn money themselfs. Whenever they are on a trip they visit us.

Dear brother, on May 9, 1852 missionaries entered the Cathedral preaching there daily for fourteen days. We wished for you to be able to hear and spiritually absorb the preaching.

Your boss von Schmitheim is dead as well as parents of Hubert Reck and cousin of Wilhelm Schmitz.

In Germany we started to grow plants on moorelands near water areas in which ship transport was in progress up to now. In Brolingen 96 acres of land were cultivated by plants. New meadows also were established without asking, if we like it or not. We tried to avoid payments because they made a special fee for us without asking anyone. After the plants will be grown enough and Germany overwhelmed by plants, it is asserted, you Americans will come back to help us to work-up the plant harvest and then as the saying has it, you will see the Christ sailing over the sea.
In Germany it is all worse and worse. For years we hoped for an improvement which did not happen. For a part of some field which earlier was priced ten tollars you must pay twenty tollars today. The community labor* is far prior to any labor on your own property which must wait. For years we have troubles with rottening of potatoes which we value over gold and silver. One measure (about 13 gallons) of potatoes cost at least 3.5 tollars, usually 4 and more.

Now greetings from your Godmother Anna Catherine Blindert, also Anna Margaretha Falckenberg as well as from Anthony and Hubert Falckenberg and from the bachelor Hubert Sampels.
Greetings from all your relatives and friends. Now, greetings to you all from Maria Eva Breizter, Peter Blindert and children, Maria, Anna Catharina and Peter. The two girls accepted the Holy Communion (Lord's Supper). Peter is in his 6th year. My cousin of Falckenberg and his brother are still alive. From there I did not inherit anything yet.

Finishing my writtings, I greet you all once again. We live in good contentment and wish a satisfied life to you, as well. Hopefully, this letter will meet you in good health. We have a favor to ask you not to forget us in your prayers such as we do to you.

Brolingen, May 10, 1857.

Peter Blindert

Dear Brother:

Your letter from Dezember 24, 1858 I received accurately on February 7, 1859. As I may see from your writtings, you are still well and healthy which gives me a great pleasure, since the healthiness and content is a great fortune on the earth.
Dear brother, if it will happen that you will come to Germany again and see me, it would be the greatest pleasure for me and you will be receives by me with everything I have in my home. To see you again after such a long time, you find out too, will be a great joy.

Dear brother, you write you have sent me the year before a letter with a golden tollar which should have arrived around the New Year. That letter I have not rece Should I have received that letter, my heart would feel an overwhelming joy, because a gift out of my brother's hand from so far country would mean many times more than just any other gift for my home.
The dear Lord is keeping my husband, my 3 children and myself well and haalthy.

Dear brother, during the Whitsuntide we prayed for you.

I do not know any more news to write. I had two children confirmed this year, the Bishop was in Hummel and we had a great feast.

Now, I am finishing my letter greeting you all with a hope, that this short note will find you in good health.

Addendum:

Confirming that you have the right Wirtz family record:

Johnsburg church records show that Peter Breister was godfather for the child of Apollonia Wirtz (his sister in law).

Also that in August 1847 Peter Joseph Wirtz was godfather for Breister's son Peter Joseph Breister.

Dear Cousin Mary Ann,

Note our new address on the lake.

I was delighted to get the results of your checking birth records. It firms up areas I could get no answers to by interviews alone, but leaves lots of questions. And, it seems we must have lots more relatives here and abroad than I ever dreamed of.

Breisster:

1. While the German script looks like an "fz", it really is best translated as a double "ss" as is done in such names as Gross. Thus for the European brethren I use Breisster, not Breitzter

2. The 8 siblings of peter Breister are a real surprise. Doctor Joseph Breister must have been better at bloodletting for harmful humours than family planning.

3. It helps understand the letters from Germany from the 1850's that I have in a lockbox. Maria Eva is mentioned, for one, perhaps being married to a Blindert. The first Anna Marie and Hubertus likely died young like Gertrudia, so the names were recycled as was the custom.

4. A reference to Hummel or Huemmel in one letter was assumed to refer to heaven (himmel). Their church must have been there, closeby. but I cannot find Hummel in an alphabetic atlas nor on a small scale map of the area. Villages on historic maps often are very unlike modern government divisions, though urban sprawl has not been permtted to invade farmland. Many very old villages are intact.

My maps have made it possible to find all of the ancestral homes for my family and Marge's. On a trip to the area in October, I did not feel confident enough with the language and road signs to search them out. It did give me an appreciation of the culture of the ancestors, who may have been poor farmers but had seen 800 year old castles and cathedrals.

Wirtz or Würtz:

1. Yes, Reifferscheid is close to Brolingen, perhaps 15 miles. The former is a couple miles NW of Adenau on the Ahr river, in the Rhineland Palatinate..The latter is north of there, across another Ahr branch that is the border of the Westphalia province, and close to the Erft river that runs through Munstereifel. Brolingen is 7 KM south of that city.

Then church must have been silent, cookery, but I cannot find Hummel in an alphabetic atlas nor on a small scale map of the area. Wurz or Wurtz.

1. Yes, Rietbrockerland is close to Brokingen, perhaps 15 miles. The former is a couple miles NW of Aldenau on the Ahr river, in the Rhineland Palatinate. The latter is north of there, across Ahr branch that is the border of the Westphalia provinces, and close to the Rhine river that runs through Munstereifel. Brolingen is 7 KM south of that city.

2. I doubt they met before emigrating. According to Fr Bier's history of the Johnsburg parish, many farmers came starting in 1841 from the counties (Kreis) of Adenau, Cochem, Daun, Mayen, Schleiden, and Pruem. It may be coincidence that they lived close by, simply because many from the area emigrated at the same time. Peter Breister arrived in NY in July 1842, according to citizenship papers, if you need to check his bunkmates. Anna Margaretha was then age 17, old enough.

3. ~~A family tree~~ An autobiography done by Lucille in grade school with Mother's help says that Anna Margaretha 's parents are buried in an abandoned cemetery in the SW part of Fond du Lac. Caroline should have known that much about the Wirtz's. The reference may be to Taycheedah cemetery near St Charles', which did lie in ruins. It opened in 1855. The Wirtz family is everywhere around St Peter. Or, they could have been buried in Sylvan Grove cemetery on Grove St in the SW corner of FDL, which was later moved

4. My notes say that Anna Margaretha's headstone DOES show Oct 13, 1824 as the date of birth, not Oct 3 as you say. Look at your photo again. That being the case, you must have the right family record.

5. It does not correlate well with records of Rose Bertram's family. See the story. That family had a n Anna Maria and John, but different parents as I read it. They arrived from a different town 10 years later. No wonder she could not find us on the tree..

6. You found that church records confirm that Anna Margaretha's parents went to America. That and the mother's name seem to confirm the family record.

7. The prefix Kalten in the village name means "frigid"/

Again, thanks and happy holidays.

Families.

They help keep us connected.

Take the Wirtz clan, for example.

More than 250 descendants of the John Wirtz I family turned out at Lakeside Park recently for a long-anticipated family reunion.

The reunion marked the 150th anniversary celebration of the arrival of John and Margaretha Schneider Wirtz in Taycheedah from Kaiserseesh, Germany.

"The response was unbelievable," said organizer Rosemary Berchem. "A year before when I said I could do this, we anticipated about 75 people. The weather, the response and the camaraderie was something we only dreamed about."

Through a massive mailing, nearly everyone was contacted who is a relative of John Wirtz, the father of John II, Anna Mary Wirtz Schmitz, Maria Katherina Wirtz Feldner, and Jacob and Anna Wirtz Simon.

Reunion organizers focused on descendants of Jacob Wirtz, father of Anna Lauby, John III, Elizabeth Freund, Joseph, Barbara Michels, Ludwig "Louie" and Rose Wirtz.

These descendants held a reunion in the summer of 1947 at Columbia Park.

The pictures of that reunion sparked the interest of some of the nieces and nephews and some grandnieces–only babes in arms at that time–to initiate plans for a 150th anniversary.

"I think it's an enrichment of life," Berchem said. "To know what you are, you must know where you came from. As people learn, it gets very exciting. I feel sorry for people who will never know (this)."

A highlight of the July 27 event at the Lakeside Park pavilion was a Mass celebrated by Rev. Mark Costello OFM, who is a great-grandson of John and Anna Wirtz Lauby and a great-great-great-grandson of John Wirtz I. Family members shared a catered luncheon and enjoyed displays of genealogical information and photos.

Dear Cousin Mary Ann,

I have an awful compilation of genealogy data, started by Mother and Sr. Carlotta. They went to their graves disappointed that I never fully assembled it. It took a computer to handle the big families, and I have over 700 individuals on record. It just goes back to the immigrants. A sheet of what we know about them is enclosed.

A Deanna Dietz, whose husband was a descendant of Grandpa Breister's brother Peter, did a lot of work on the Breister side and filled in some blanks. Either she or her husband died in Tucson not long ago.

The family sheets you sent helped untangle the Klapperich side. I also met a grade school acqaintance of yours, Cecile Berchem. Her mother Rose is apparently a Wirtz, and she said we had the same great grandmother. More likely, Great-Great, for our great grandfather Peter Breister married Anna Margaretha Wirtz. She said some Klapperichs had moved on to North Dakota or Montana, and that one descendant, a Dominican priest with 16 siblings, says that one of them is compiling a genealogy on the Klapperichs. I have not contacted the Berchems to learn more. Cecile lives with her parents, Rose and Math.

The Magdalena Mohr pictured on a prayer card you sent was the wife of Mike Mohr, an Oshkosh postman.

Marge and I are setting out Feb. 5th to tour the Southwest, visit Elaine, and see Sue in San Francisco. On the way back on I 80 we'll stop in Salt Lake City to do genealogy work at the fantastic Mormon family research center there. (We may call when passing [redacted]Omaha).
Trouble is, while I know where the immigrants came from, the microfilmed German records are in script, and ramble on at length to record a marriage or baptism. It is slow work for one who has difficulty with the language and the handwriting. I know the Grebe church records go back to the year 1200.
If ever you want to tackle it, your library or a local Mormon research center can order duplicate films from Utah.

I have not attempted to keep up on all the descendants of the immigrants. It gets overwhelming.

As to the person you met whose mother was Maria Mohr, the only 2 Maria Mohrs on my record died in the last century, other than aunt Mary, a spinster.

Regards,

Tom

GREBE SIDE ---GREAT-GREAT-GREAT GRANDPARENT IMMIGRES

JOST GREBE (1830-1906) Arrived in New York June 1, 1853 on sailing bark "Alfred" . Came from Gladenbach, Hessen, Germany, a 600 year old farm village some 60 KM north of Frankfurt that was the ancestral home of the Grebe family. Settled briefly on land 10 miles east of Fond du Lac, then moved to the city as a cabinet maker in 1855. In 1861 built a home at 22 E Rees Street, which property is still owned by a descendant.

CATHERINE EULER(1829-1897) From the village of Biedenkopf, just 11 KM from Gladenbach. Immigrated in 1854 and married Jost Grebe that year.

JAMES CUSHIN(1825-1906) Born in County Tipperary, Ireland. Moved to the the USA during the great potato famine of the 1840's, and bought a farm north of Ireland. Weakened by famine and disease, many Irish died on the ships en route .

BRIDGET NOLAN(1825-1891) From County Longford, Ireland, the young bride of James Cushin bore 5 children between 1849 and 1856.

PETER BREISTER(1817-1896) The well-educated son of a doctor, he lived in the village Brolingen, Prussia, Germany nine KM south of Bad Munstereifel southwest of Bonn. Emigrated to US in 1842 and moved to Detroit, then Johnsburg, then Fond du Lac in 1855. The home he built still stands at 401 N. Main St. Worked as a cabinet maker.

ANNA MARGARETHA WIRTZ(1824-1874) She came from Germany with her parents, marrying Peter Breister in New York in 1842. Bore 10 children, one a Civil War soldier.

JACOB MOHR(1821-1896) Born in Germany or Austria, he landed in New York in 1847 after a 56 day voyage. It was the second year of a great crop failure in Europe. Spent 26 years as a tailor in Marytown and New Holstein, then bought a farm SE of Mt. Calvary to feed 16 children by 2 wives.

CATHERINE WINKEL(1825-1865?) Married Jacob Mohr in Germany in 1846, emigrated the next year at age 22. Had six daughters before dying young.

MAGDALENA KLAPPERICH(1845-1916) Second wife of Jacob Mohr. Immigrated from Houston, Germany about 1854-7 with 5 siblings and parents Steffan(1802-187X) and Gertrude (nee Neis, 1819-1876), who homesteaded a Marytown farm. Wed Mohr in 1866 and bore 10 children.

Not very accurate. There was a language barrier. From a history of Fdl County

JACOB MOHR, who is engaged in farming on section 9, Forest Township, is a native of Germany. He was born on the 13th of September, 1821, and in that country was reared to manhood and received his education. When a young man he learned the tailor's trade, and throughout the greater part of his life has followed that occupation, being very successful. When about twenty-five years of age he determined to leave Germany for a home across the water, and in 1847 sailed for America. The contrast between the methods of travel in those days and at the present time is indeed great. It was almost six weeks after leaving port ere the vessel in which Mr. Mohr embarked neared the shores of the New World. The voyage was not only a long one, but was fraught with many perils and encountered many violent storms, but at length, after fifty-five days all landed safely in New York. We can imagine the joy of the passengers as once more they caught a glimpse of shore and felt that they were soon to be on firm ground again. Our subject continued on his way until reaching Milwaukee, where he made his first location. In that city he secured employment at his trade, working for eight months when he came to Fond du Lac County. Since that time he has been numbered among the prominent and influential citizens of the community. He settled in Marytown, in Calumet Township, where he embarked in business for himself, continuing on in that line for the long period of twenty-six consecutive years; he also lived in New Holstein two years. It is almost superfluous to say that he was an expert workman, as no man not possessing superior capabilities could have maintained a flourishing business in one place for that length of time. He moved to his present beautiful home in 1868, but great indeed is the transformation that has taken place since that time. The land on which he located was still uncultivated to a great extent and the improvements were of an inferior character, but possessing unbounded energy, Mr. Mohr began the development of the farm, and as the result of his labors has one of the finest homes in the township. The well-tilled fields, elegant and commodious residence, substantial barns and outbuildings, and the fine grades of stock there seen all indicate the care and supervision of a most industrious man.

In 1846, the year previous to his emigration to America, Mr. Mohr was united in the holy bonds of matrimony with Miss Katie Winkel, a native of Germany, and with his young bride started for the New World, where he determined to carve out a fortune for himself and family. His wife, however, was only for a few short years permitted to enjoy her new home. After the birth of six children she was called to her final rest, leaving her home a household of mourning. The children are Jennie, Sophia, Eva, Lizzie, Sarah and Barbara, but the last named died when only a few months old. Sarah, the fifth child, is now married and living in Forest Township. In 1866 Mr. Mohr led to the marriage altar Miss Magdalena Klapperch, a native of Germany, and their union has been blessed with nine children—Mathias, Lena, Jennie, Girdie, Katie, Michael, Paulina, Mary and Annie. Katie, the fifth in order of birth, is deceased; one of the sons is in California in charge of the street railway of San Francisco, and another is in the convent in Fond du Lac. He has given special attention to the excellent traits of character which commanded the respect and won the confidence of all with whom business or pleasure brought him in contact. He was a man of sterling worth, fair and honest in all his dealings, and scorned to injure any one. He was truly a self-made man, but though he began life without capital, before his death he had acquired a comfortable competency, which left his widow in easy circumstances. He was widely and favorably known throughout the neighborhood in which he lived, and in his death the county lost one of its best citizens.

After more than a year of widowhood, Mrs. Brown became the wife of Mathias Baldoef, the wedding being celebrated the 17th of May, 1888. They still reside upon the farm of 100 acres, where the lady has made her home since her first marriage. They rank among the best citizens of the community, and are held in high regard by all who know them.

JACOB MOHR, who is engaged in farming on section 9, Forest Township, is a native of Germany. He was born on the 13th of September, 1821, and in that country was reared to manhood and received his education. When a young man he learned the tailor's trade, and throughout the greater part of his life has followed that occupation, being very successful. When about twenty-five years of age he determined to leave Germany for a home across the water, and in 1847 sailed for America. The contrast between the methods of travel in those days and at the present time is indeed great. It was almost six weeks after leaving port ere the vessel in which Mr. Mohr embarked neared the shores of the New World. The voyage was not only a long one, but was fraught with many perils and encountered many violent storms, but at length, after fifty-five days all landed safely in New York. We can imagine the joy of the passengers as once more they caught a glimpse of shore and felt that they were soon to be on firm ground again. Our subject continued on his way until reaching Milwaukee, where he made his first location. In that city he secured employment at his trade, working for eight months when he came to Fond du Lac County. Since that time he has been numbered among the prominent and influential citizens of the community. He settled in Marytown, in Calumet Township, where he embarked in business for himself, continuing on in that line for the long period of twenty-six consecutive years; he also lived in New Holstein two years. It is almost superfluous to say that he was an expert workman, as no man not possessing superior capabilities could have maintained a flourishing business in one place for that length of time. He moved to his present beautiful home in 1868, but great indeed is the transformation that has taken place since that time. The land on which he located was still uncultivated to a great extent and the improvements were of an inferior character, but possessing unbounded energy, Mr. Mohr began the development of the farm, and as the result of his labors has one of the finest homes in the township. The well-tilled fields, elegant and commodious residence, substantial barns and outbuildings, and the fine grades of stock there seen all indicate the care and supervision of a most industrious man.

He has given special attention to the education of his children, and a bright future seems opening before them. The entire family are members of the Catholic Church, and have many warm friends throughout the community.

Mr. Mohr is a worthy and loyal citizen and deserves great credit for the success which he has attained in life. His business career has been marked with honesty and fair dealing in every transaction, and he was never known to intentionally wrong any one. He never allowed a note to become due but watched carefully every detail, and by so doing won the respect and confidence of all. Few men are more widely or favorably known in Forest Township, and the high regard in which he is held is indeed well merited.

HENRY GOEBEL is engaged in farming on section 19, town of Forest. He was born in this county on the 10th of January, 1856, and is of German birth. His parents, August and Mary Goebel, were natives of Germany, and in that country were reared and married. They came to America in 1852, settling on section 19, Forest Township, where they passed the remainder of their lives. A more extended notice of that worthy couple is given in the sketch of Joseph Goebel, whose history appears on another page of this volume.

Our subject passed the days of his boyhood and youth on the farm where he was born, and received his education in the schools of his neighborhood. He was but five years old when the death of his father occurred, and had not yet attained his majority when his mother was called to her final home. He, however, resided with his brother upon the farm where the family first located until his marriage, when he began life for himself. In Fond du Lac County he was united in the holy bonds of matrimony with Miss Elizabeth Roch, the wedding taking place on the 17th of May, 1883. Mrs. Goebel was born in New Holstein, March 1, 1866, and her entire life has been passed in this county. She is a daughter of John and Josephine (DeVille) Roch. Three children have been born

Dear Mary,

Here are some papers for you. This Joe Matheis's wife is Velma Landherr, her mother was Elizabeth Huemann Landherr. Elizabeth is the daughter of Michael Huemann and Emma Heimes. Michael is a brother of our grandmother Anna Maria Huemann Mueller.

Hope this will help you to find where he belongs, so it would be a Huemann relative.

Busy canning green beans this morning. Have to dig a few more potatoes & carrots, pick cucumbers and tomatoes as it is to rain again this week end. Always something to do.

March 1, 2005

Dear Isabella,

Thank you for sending the material on Sr. Matthea. I read it with interest.

Yes, I got the notice on the family reunion on June 26th. I'm planning to attend. May I stay with you again?

And, yes, I'd like to see (and probably like a copy of) what you've put together on your family. But save it until June. It's probably time to go thru some of the other things you have again.

A few weeks ago Uwe Kruse of Hausten, Germany (recognize the town?) sent me about 25 pages of material on the Klapperichs. I now have the complete family of Dionis (Stefan's father) and Stephan and Elizabeth Hackenbruch Klapperich (Stephan's grandfather). I'll bring you a new Klapperich listing in June. Uwe is looking for photos of the Klapperich emigrants. Do you have or know anyone who has a photo of Stefan and Gertrude Neis Klapperich?

Uwe also identified the Peter Hubert Klapperich who married Mary Catherine Muller (Johann's sister). He was the illegitimate son of Anna Klapperich who married Adam Muller. The Adam Muller family emigrated in 1842 from Arft to McHenry County. Uwe is looking for a picture of Peter Hubert and his family. As I recall, the Wilber Klapperich you and I visited was a descendent of Peter Hubert. Do you know anyone in McHenry who could try to find such a picture?

The gal in Albert Lea is Marjorie Beiser, 819 S. 1st Ave., Albert Lea, MN, 56007-1910. She lost her husband last fall so she was pretty blue the last time she wrote. I've printed the families she has sent so far. Nicholas Schmitt from whom Marjorie is descended was a younger brother of our Susanna. Marjorie has never sent me anything on the Budach family or her own. I know she has a sister who lives near her. If you go to visit, try to get more info.

That's about it for today. I'm trying to clear some of the things off my desk today. Always seem to be behind on the little details.

2004 Season Greetings

The Christmas season is upon us again. It seems like it was yesterday that we had Labor Day. Oh, well, I'll catch up sooner or later.

I still travel with Penny, Loren, and their family on their vacation. This year we took in the sites of South Dakota and Yellowstone and then into Montana. We spent several days in Bozeman, Montana by Loren's aunt and family. It was a most enjoyable visit. We came home thru North Dakota. We visited some of Wes's old neighbors near Tuttle, so now Penny got to see where her Dad came from in North Dakota. We stopped at more places along the way home taking in some sites in North Dakota and western Minnesota.

After we were home we went to Wisconsin to Wes's aunt's 80th birthday party. There we met cousins we didn't know but have heard of. It was a fun time for all.

I kept busy trying to plant garden and mow lawn between showers this year. Garden did pretty well except the tomatoes. They were just starting to go good when the frost came. I still help the kids pick rock in the spring. We did a little again after bean harvest.

Late summer my family and I spent a weekend in Branson, MO. Yes, Ray came from Texas that far too. We had a fun time. Ray always makes things fun. We are all wondering what's up his sleeve for Christmas this year.

I am still digging thru boxes and found a lot of family history. I found a couple of letters to my mother from a cousin dated 1932 and 1935. The letters spoke of how they were really having hard times. (We have nothing to complain about after reading those letters.) So now I am putting everything in books so it will be easier to find things and keep them more organized. The more I find the more I want to know. I may have to do some corresponding to Illinois. And maybe make a trip to western Minnesota. So I guess that will keep me busy for a while.

My oldest grandsons are in high school and also in sports, so I take in some of their games. Danielle plays softball in the summer so there are sports all year long. Emily is taking piano lessons so I have recitals to go to.

We will have a new addition this Christmas as Kari and Kevin have a 14 month old foster boy that should be fun to have one that little around again.

Wishing good health to everyone.
Have a Blessed Christmas and a Very Happy New Year with your families.

Isabella Morse

Received your letter. You are on the mailing list for the reunion, I saw to that as Elmer asked me for addresses. You probably have it by now as I received mine.

You were stating things about the Schmitt line. In going through mothers things this fall I found two letters one dating in 1932 and one 1935 from from a cousin N J Schmitt in Comfrey, Mn.

If you look at John and Susanna golden wedding write ups it states that Susanna has a brother Nick Schmitt in Minnesota. So this N J Schmitt must be a son of Nick Schmitt.

Who is this Albert Lea gal, being I am not too far away, I'll contact her and go see her. I was thinking of going to Comfrey in the spring to see what I could find out. Let me know.

I have a complete history done up on Stephen and Christina Klapperich. Family pictures and obituaries included. Let me know if you want one.

Katherine Jap told me she thinks Virginia (Krebsbach) is printing a book to be ready for the reunion. Don't know if it is Klapperich - Bell or what. She said the last she heard from her she was in Germany looking up some last things she wanted.

Sister Matthea Sahr, FSPA

Sister Matthea Sahr, FSPA, 96, died Sunday, November 28, 2004, at Villa St. Joseph, La Crosse. She was in the seventy-second year of her religious profession.

When she moved to the Villa in April 2003, Sister Matthea was in frail health. For several days before her death she had been taking her meals upstairs instead of the dining room. On the day of her death she was not feeling well and was anointed after Mass. Sister Matthea visited with one of her sisters by telephone in the afternoon and with other sisters who stopped by her room. She did not want to be alone so the Sisters at the Villa took turns being with her. She died peacefully at 4:25 p.m.

Sister Matthea was the oldest of eight children born to Matthias and Clara (Klapperich) Sahr on July 6, 1908, in New Haven, Iowa. At Baptism she was given the name Barbara Laura. She was always called Laura. Three years later her father left his carpentry trade and moved the family to a farm near McIntire, Iowa, then to Stacyville and, later, to David Iowa. In 1917 the family moved to a farm near Gilbert, Wisconsin. There the last three children were born. In the fall of 1926, her father again took up carpentry and moved to Wausau. Laura entered first grade at the Catholic school in Adams, Minnesota; completed second grade at David, Iowa; third grade at Meyer Catholic School; and grades four through eight at Dotter School in Gilbert. Laura graduated from the Tomahawk High School and a year later received her certification from Marathon County Rural Normal School. The following three years she taught in rural schools in eastern Marathon County. On June 12, 1930, Laura entered St. Rose Convent.

Laura was received into the novitiate on August 12, 1931, and was given the name Sister Matthea. She made first profession of vows on August 8, 1933, and final vows on August 8, 1939.

Sister Matthea continued her education ministry, earning a bachelor degree from Viterbo College and teaching primary grades for forty-six years in parochial schools in Iowa and Wisconsin. From 1978-1991 she served as teacher aide and librarian at Christ the King School, Breda, Iowa. Sister Matthea retired to St. Rose Convent in 1991 and Villa St. Joseph in 2003.

Community members, family and students recall Sister Matthea as an excellent teacher. Her desire to help others was apparent in the classroom. Her quiet, loving disposition endeared her to the children and watching them develop gave her great joy. If you asked her a question about Odanah, she could talk for hours about her experiences at St. Mary's School among the Native Americans. On many of her earlier teaching assignments, Sister Matthea also did the cooking and sewing for the sisters. "We didn't have so many records and teacher meetings, so there was time for other things," she explained. Sister Matthea was a prayerful woman and a lover of nature. One of Sister Matthea's treasured memories was appearing with Sister Helen Liewer on the post card of the Adoration Chapel

Sister Matthea is survived by her Franciscan Community; three sisters: Margaret (Edwin) Eudes, Schofield, Wisconsin, Katherine Jax, Austin, Minnesota, and Tina Richards, Wausau, Wisconsin; a brother, John (Betty) Sahr and sister-in-law, Doris Sahr, all of Wausau; and nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers: Albert and Leon; and a sister Leona.

Friends may call after 3:15 p.m., Tuesday, November 29, when the body will be met at St. Rose Convent. A prayer service will be held at 7 p.m. in Mary of the Angels Chapel. Reverend Tom O'Neill, Chaplain at Viterbo University, will preside at the Mass of Christian Burial in Mary of the Angels Chapel, Wednesday, December 1, at 10:30 a.m. Burial will be in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, La Crosse.

Memorials may be sent to Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration, 912 Market Street, La Crosse, Wisconsin 54601-8800.

copied these papers at Sister Matthea's funeral they were with her personal things the family were dividing up. Don't know if you want them but I thought they were interesting.

FROM THE IOWA PRAIRIE - TO THE WOODLANDS OF WISCONSIN

While the war was raging in Europe, the United States declared war on Germany in April 1917, Uncle Joe Klapperich, my mom's brother, and Mike Aehl, mom's cousin left for overseas from Adams. That fall while going to school at Sacred Heart, Adams, I recall the following memories....

While Laura and I stayed at Grandma and Grandpa Klapperich's in Adams, they had gas lights. When the lights would go low Grandpa would put a quarter in the meter downstairs and they would be bright again. Also at night we watched the lamp lighter on Main Street in Adams, climb a ladder and light the so called street lights, one at a time.

It was here the Catholic school children put on a program for Joe and Mike and others who were going over seas. Aunt Margaret Klapperick Theabold and Laura were in the program, which included many patriotic songs. I was eight years old and in the 2nd grade. After three months of staying with Grandma and Grandpa, (Barbara and Michael Klapperich), Laura and I went back to the farm near David, Iowa near Meyer, Iowa. David is no longer there but a little white community church still stands the rest is all farm land. At the time it had a grain elevator, grocery store, with a post office on one end, hardware store, bank, cattle buying yard and a busy train station. We would walk about a quarter of a mile from our farm to get the mail daily. One day Pa (Matt Sahr) took Albert (he was about seven years old) to the store to show him where to get the mail. The door was open, the next day he went and the door was closed so Albert returned home without the mail.

The house we lived in on our rented farm near David had five bedrooms. It was a white square house with running water and indoor toilet. It was our home for three years. Raising oats, wheat, and corn. In the summer Ma (Clara) would hire a girl for $2.00 a week to take care of five children and make the meals while she worked in the fields with Pa. There where cows and at least six horses or more plus Ma's chickens to take take care of. Four horses were for the field use and two for driving on Sundays. Ma would hitch up a slow old white horse we called Shimmel and take some of us children to mass at Meyer, at least three miles. The church still stands. Ma and Pa where married in the school house chapel before the present church was built. They were married June 4, 1907. Every other Sunday Pa would hitch a fast horse, we called Long Legs (German) and take us children along and go to Wapsie, St. Patrick's Church. It was a little country church and cemetary all that remains now is the cemetary. It was an Irish settlement of farms near by. Grandma and Grandpa Klapperich would also go there sometimes before they retired to Adams in 1914. They belonged to Johnsburg, that's where Ma got her education until Meyer was later built,(all these little towns mentioned where no more than 4 or 5 miles apart).

Laura, Albert and I would walk to country school, about a mile away, sometimes by road and sometimes we took shortcuts along the railroad tracks to David.We sometimes walked with neighbor children. My first day at school I could not speak any English, just the German spoken at home.

When Ma and Pa got married Pa built them a new house at New Haven, Iowa (it still stands) in 1907.

Our Grandma and Grandpa (Margaret Fieland and Mathias Sahr) lived with us for ten years. Laura, Katherine, and Albert where born in New Haven. Pa being a carpenter decided to go farming. The Grandparents moved with us from New Haven to David. They started farming on a farm between Mc Intire, Iowa and Meyer, Iowa, where another little girl joined them named Florentina, born November 11, 1912. After some time they moved to a farm near Stacyville, Iowa known as the Falk Farm. There another little girl joined the family named Leona, born July 21, 1915. I remember the day she was born, we would go play with neighbor children, but when it was mealtime we always came home, because it was only across the road. Being no cars we could cross by ourselves, but this day when we went to play we where told we could stay for dinner amd later when we did go home there was a new baby and Grandma Klapperich.

After several years they moved to David, Iowa. At David, Pa decided he wanted to buy a farm. The farms in 1917 in Iowa where too expensive, some relatives told him land was cheap in Wisconsin. So the relator and Pa took the train to Wisconsin and looked at land. Pa decided on a farm five miles south from Tomahawk, Wisconsin. Several miles from Gilbert, Wisconsin which had a train stop, saloon and a school. The farm had a log house. The house had siding on it painted a lite rust color, the logs where not visible outside. It was warm when the temperature dipped 40 to 50 below zero. The farm was on the banks of the Wisconsin River. When it came time to move, Edward and Minnie Cody and two small boys, Joe and Aloyious (neighbors near David) decided to move along with us to Wisconsin. Both families had an auction together. Pa kept two cows, two horses, chickens and a few pigs. Plus what Mr. Cody kept was put in two box cars at David Station all with the household goods, machinery, and feed for the animals. Pa and Mr. Cody rode in the box cars, which took them a week. Ma and the five children; Laura, Katherine, Albert, Florentina and Leona, (I was nine years old at the time). We traveled by sled to Uncle Matt amd Aunt Phine Klapperich's near Meyer for a few days. Albert celebrated his seventh birthday while there, March 7, 1918. From there they took us again by sleigh to Uncle Edward and Aunt Lena Hemann, some three miles away, where we stayed for a few more days. When it came time for the journey to Wisconsin Aunt Lena made sandwiches from bread and meat which had previously been supplied by Clara.

Late in the aftermoon Uncle Eddie took us by horses to McIntire, Iowa where we were to leave the next morning by train. At McIntire we were joined by Minnie Cody and boys. We all stayed in a small hotel, the room had a pot bellied stove, wood had to be put in to keep us warm. We all slept in one room. We got up early about 4:00 the next morning,(it was early March), so we could leave. There was a snow storm raging and the train came in late. Finally we left but missed our 11:00 connections in St. Paul, Minn. to catch the train that was to take us to our new home. We sat in the depot there all day. Ma with five children and Minnie Cody and her two boys, everything was strange to us, because we had never traveled such a distance by train before. Finally after a long wait most of the day Ma gave a porter a quarter to see if he could get us on a train to Gilbert, Wisconsin. It was 11:00 at night when we finally got moving. Pa met the train at Gilbert and we were not on it so all he could do was go home and wait. So the next morning when we arrived at Gilbert, Wisconsin no one was there to meet us, as there were no telephones. The saloon keeper sent word along with some loggers who where going by our house, that the delayed family had arrived at the Gilbert Station. It was around 9:00 A.M. when we finally got there after traveling all night and the day before. There was a saloon keeper named Harries, who took us in and treated us to a bottle of pop, while we waited for Pa. Pa arrived and took us to our new home about two miles away on a sled. The Cody's moved into an empty farm house nearby until they acquired a farm of there own near Tomahawk. They later had a little girl named Mary. Laura become her sponsor in later years when they moved back to Springfield, Illinois (I stopped to see her MINNIE once on one of our trips to Florida. Mr. Cody had passed away). About a month after we arrived Pa received word that his father Mathias had passed away in Iowa at 92. Pa took the train back for the funeral at New Haven, Iowa. After we left David, Iowa, Mathias and Margaret Sahr went to live in a rest home near Osage. After Mathias passed away Margaret went to Chicago to reside with her daughter, Margaret Kulhman. She passed away in 1928 and was buried in Chicago at the age of 90.

In Tomahawk we enrolled in to the Dotter, one room School which meant walking 1 1/2 miles from home. Our first teacher was Nora Frawley, we only attended school eight months out of the year, which gave us plenty of time to help and explore on the farm. We walked to school with Mary and Margaret Obey, who were our neighbors until they moved to Tomahawk, which gave us occassion to go visit them sometime. As the summer went on we grew a variety of crops, potatoes grew well here, we children picked the potato bugs and wild raspberries, strawberries, blackberries which grew in abundance there. Ma canned many hundreds of quarts.

FROM THE IOWA PRAIRIE - TO THE WOODLANDS OF WISCONSIN

On November 3, 1918 a new baby daughter joined the Sahr's named Margaret. We got up in the morning and there she was.

On November 11, 1918 Armistice was declared, we heard the paper mill whistles blow five miles away at Tomahawk, which signaled the end of World War I.

On March 6, 1921 a boy named Leon and on September 14, 1925 a boy named John joined the family on that same farm. Today all that is visable of the buildings is the stone foundation of the root cellar which Ma used as her refrigerator during the summer time, storing her canned goods.

This was home for eight years when 1926 the family moved to Wausau, Wisconsin where the children grew up and got married. Laura became a Franciscan Nun at LaCrosse. Clara passed away on September 29, 1954 and Matt on May 11, 1960 both are buried at Restlawn Cemetary at Wausau, Wisconsin. May they rest in peace...

The trip for Delphin and Mary Ann, Deb, Lavern and Gloria had a twofold purpose. They visited the home of Helga whom Marvin lived with ever since his tour of duty was over with the military.

A certain sense of closure was felt after the attempts to locate the place and people in Germany where he spent most of his days following military duty was actually found and realized. The gravesite of Delphin and Lavern's brother, Marvin was visited by five of his family from the States. Their brother Marvin died in 2000 at the age of 70.

After having spent four days in England, two days in France, and eight days in Germany, Delphin, Mary Ann, Lavern and Gloria returned to the States on September 27, 2002.

Mueller family reunion

An extraordinarily significant family reunion occurred at the Sacred Heart Hall in Adams, on Saturday July 5, 2003. It was the day celebrated by the siblings of Marvin Mueller to meet Helga Schramm who was Marvin's life companion.

Earlier Helga Schramm of Munchingen Germany and Jackie Happes of Korntal Germany, which is approximately a one half hour drive southeast of Stuttgart Germany, arrived in Minneapolis, MN on Friday evening, June 27. The first night was spent with Deb McFadden (a niece of Marvin) in Minneapolis. The Mall of America was visited prior to their arrival in Austin on Saturday, June 28 to spend the week with Delphin and Mary Ann Mueller who are Deb's parents. While in Austin they visited the cemeteries and family graves in Adams and Austin, MN and also in Meyer and Stacyville.

75 family members attended the reunion. The person traveling the farthest distance was Peg Larson, the daughter of Cyrilla Rockers. She traveled from Guffey, CO. The youngest member in attendance was Gabriel Mueller, 7 month old grandson of Lavern Mueller. The oldest in attendance was Cyrilla Rockers.

The family of John and Elizabeth Mueller included 13 children: Cyrilla, Viola (deceased at age 10), Evelyn (deceased-March 2003), Emil, John (died at birth), Elmer, Maxine, Irene, Marvin (deceased - Germany 2000 of August), Delphin, Anita, Lavern and Mary.

There are 75 grandchildren and 158 great grandchildren.

After the reunion Helga and Jackie spent their second week in the states with Lavern and Gloria Mueller of Osage. Their itinerary included a drive to Dubuque for a cruise on the Mississippi River, a trip to West Bend, IA to see the Grotto of Redemption, and also visited the Billy Clock Museum in Spillville, IA.

Helga and Jackie will return home to Germany on Saturday July 12.

* 04.06.1816 Hausten

This is my great, great Grandfather. He immigrated with his sons, Stephen and John to St. Anna, WI in 1857. Nickolaus, his wife, son Stephen and a son named Jacob born in St. Anna, Feb 2, 1862, moved on to Stearns County, MN. Obituaries state that brother John moved to Michigan. I have not been able to dig up anything on John, but if he is the brother, then there is info for this family dating back to the 1700's. A website done by a Hausten, Germany man is

MISS ME - BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free. Miss me a little - but not too long, and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared, Miss me - but let me go. For this is a journey we all must take, and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Lord's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, Go to the friends we know. Bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,

SAFELY HOME

I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.

Did you wonder I so calmly
Trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.

And He came Himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's Will.

There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand,
Do it now, while life remaineth-
You shall rest in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home-

God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around her
And whispered, "Come with Me."

With tearful eyes we watched her suffer
And saw her fade away,
Although we loved her dearly
We could not make her stay.

A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands to rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

It was a very large funeral.

Lets hope he does before he gets called home to heaven.

That is all for now, and OK - hope all is well with you

STACYVILLE, Iowa — The funeral for Charles P. Adams of Stacyville, Iowa, will be 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Visitation Catholic Church in Stacyville, with the Rev. Joseph Schneider officiating. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Mr. Adams, 68, died Thursday (Sept. 28, 2000) at Mitchell County Regional Health Center in Osage, Iowa.

He was born Sept. 26, 1932, in Stacyville. He attended Visitation Catholic School. He married Anita Mueller in Meyer, Iowa, on April 7, 1956. The couple lived in Stacyville, and he worked for White Farm Equipment in Charles City for 31 years. He also worked as a carpenter for his father. He was preceded in death by a son.

Friends may call from 2:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. today at the church, where a rosary will be recited at 3 p.m. and a scripture service will be at 7:30 p.m.

"We don't talk about sexuality ... in scouting," he said. That is up to parents and other adults.

Good said he would rather concentrate on expanding scouting's message.

"To me, that's what scouting is all about," he said, "empowering kids to make that difference."

Breister was carpenter

By Thomas Grebe

Our eight great-grandparents all came to Fond du Lac County in pioneer days in search of a dream.

Peter Breister was born Feb. 17, 1817, according to his leather Latin-German missal, hand-copied with elaborate calligraphy.

Reportedly the son of a physician, he left home at 25 for the New World. After arriving in New York in July 1842, he met 19-year-old Margaretha Wirtz traveling with her parents. They married.

Soon they joined the hordes moving west via the Erie Canal, thence by schooner from Buffalo to Detroit. After a stay there, they moved on to the new settlement at Heinzberg (Johnsburg).

The family was blessed with 10 children, my grandfather William Breister the last born.

Being no farmer, Peter traveled to Fond du Lac to work as a carpenter, and in 1855, built himself a home that still stands at the southeast corner of Bank and Main Streets. The front parlor served as a neighborhood grocery store for a while.

One son fought in the Civil War as a teen-ager. Son John became a druggist and a city councilman.

William was a "stationary engineer," running the steam engines that powered Huber Drug Mills and Giddings & Lewis Manufacturing Company. Breister Avenue is named for him.

Local Family History

William's wife was Gertrude Mohr, in whose honor their developer sons named Gertrude Avenue in the city.

Her father, Jacob Mohr, emigrated from Germany or Austria in 1847 at age 26 with his wife, Catherine Winkel, in the second year of a great crop failure in Europe that coincided with the Irish potato famine. The voyage took 56 days on a sailing ship. He worked as a tailor in Marytown and New Holstein some 26 years.

After Catherine died young leaving six daughters, Jacob married Magdalena Klapperich and bought a farm near Mount Calvary to feed the family. With Lena, he fathered another 11 children, one being Gertrude. Lena had immigrated to Marytown about 1854-57 from Hausten, Germany, with her farmer parents Gertrude and Steffan Klapperich.

My maternal great-grandmother was Irish and proud of it. Maggie was born in 1856 to James Cushin and Bridget Nolan who came separately from counties Tipperary and Longford, respectively. They survived the voyage on "death ships," in which Irish weakened by the potato famine often succumbed to disease at sea. Along with other Irish immigrants, they found land north of Eldorado far more fertile than the old rocky fields of the Emerald Isle.

Daughter Maggie lived to age 80, a woman of great grace and humor. Her sister, Sarah Kelley, who also spent more than 30 years as a widow, lived to 91. Maggie married a butcher, Charles Grebe.

Charles was himself the son of early settlers, Jost Grebe and Catherine Euler.

Attracted by stories of cheap land, in 1853, Jost left the family's ancestral farm village of Gladenbach, Germany, (80 km north of Frankfurt) on the sailing bark, "Alfred," for New York. He settled with other Lutherans on farmland around St. Paul's Church, 10 miles east of Fond du Lac.

Catherine immigrated the next year and they married. She was from a nearby German village, Biedenkopf, and perhaps they were already acquainted. In 1855, Jost Grebe moved to Fond du Lac to work as a cabinet maker in the growing city, and in 1861 built a home at 22 E. Rees St. A descendant still owns the lot 137 years later!

Their 33 children nearly all stayed here, and many descendants to the seventh generation have found no reason to stray beyond.

Thomas Grebe, the writer of this historic article, resides at N8195 Sunset Drive.

* Attached papers are all I could find in Mom's Durben book.

2-3. Christine DURBEN (Peter J. 1) b. 16 Mar 1858 Marytown, d. 23 May 1928
m. Paul Weber 20 Feb 1879
b. 20 Jan 1845, d. 21 Oct 1912

The name Weber is German for weaver, which no doubt was the occupation of some of the forefathers. Paul Weber was born Adenau, Prussia and after coming to Wisconsin with an uncle, he farmed near Marytown. His farm was located approximately one-half mile east of the Marytown bank on highway 149 on the left hand side of the road. August Sippel is the present owner. The barn burned down a few years ago and has not been rebuilt.

Paul Weber and Christine Durben were married February 20, 1879 at the Marytown Visitation Church and witnesses were Michael Durben and Gertrude Michels. The Webers raised ten children, and two are living at this writing. Several years ago Serena Polster made an outline of the children and grandchildren of Paul and Christine and it was with her help that the following descendants were found.

Serena writes, "My brother had been over in Germany in service after the war and tried locating some relatives. He said the city of Adenau was completely bombed out during W. W. II and he could not find any records because the court house and churches were gone. Also the people were not too friendly to Americans at that time and it was difficult to get information from any of the old timers he could find. Since his time was limited, he could not find too much. He did find out that Adenau was a suburb of Heidelburg and has been rebuilt under a new name." Heidelburg now has an Autobahn, a superhighway.

There is also an Adenau just south of Leimbach where the Durbens came from and it is possible that he came from there instead. The obituary of Paul Weber was searched in hopes of finding out more about his roots, but it did not tell his parents. The obit follows:

THE CHILTON TIMES, October 26, 1912

PAUL WEBER DIES: The Times learns that Paul Weber, one of the progressive and well-to-do farmers of Marytown, died at his home on Monday and will be buried on Friday. The deceased was about 68 years old and was well and favorably known by many residents of this county. He was a hard working man and thrifty but always had time to entertain his friends or assist a neighbor who needed help. For over a years past Mr. Weber had been in failing health and while his death was not unexpected it was a shock not only to his family but to his numerous friends. Adam Miller of this city was a brother-in-law of the deceased.

Christine Durben's baptism was recorded at the Visitation Church on March 16, 1858, the day she was born. Both she and her husband are buried in the parish cemetery, Marytown. Fond du Lac and Chilton Court Houses were checked for a marriage of the Webers but it was not found.

THE ANCESTORS AND DESCENDANTS OF

Complied by Orlando and Almeda Gulig

PREFACE

This genealogy was to originally be for our children, to acquaint them with facts, story, and pictures of their ancestors. After starting to work on this during or about the year 1975, it has evolved into something quite different and more complex.

We now hope that all of you will enjoy our work. Yes, as much as we have enjoyed putting it together. Even after starting this project, it was our intention to do only the family of John and Margaret Enders Weinreis. While visiting in St. Joe with Judy Schmitz, who is an accomplished Genealogist; she said, "What about the John Morgen Family?". I can remember my Mother talking about being related to Morgens, but that was over my head at my age. So we discussed this family, and then discovered that John Morgen's wife, Gertrude, was a sister to John Weinreis (1812-1906). So, Judy started us on the Morgen family.

Consequently, now, we have compiled the descendants of both John and Gertrude Weinreis. We trust that the following chart will clarify the relationship. Kindly note that the common Ancestor is Henry Weinreis, who was the father of both John and Gertrude. We are all to him. He came to Wisconsin also. We do not believe that he came at the same time that John and Gertrude came to Wisconsin in 1848. Records seem to indicate that he (Henry) came in 1852.

This genealogy is very large, and there are bound to be errors. Any errors or discrepancies, of course, are not intentional, and if you will notify us of any corrections, we shall make the corrections on our master copy so that if any future printings are made, they will be correct. Any errors that are serious enough to notify all owners of copies of this genealogy, will be notified. Hopefully, this will be done within six months of your receipt of the printing of the genealogy.

It is our hope that you will get pleasure from this history--it has been our pleasure to compile it.

INTRODUCTION

At one time Germany was part of the Holy Roman Empire. "In 1517 Martin Luther broke with the Roman Catholic Church. Some of the rulers in Northern Germany sided with Luther, and the Emperor was caught in the disagreement between some of his Dukes on one side and the Pope on the other. To settle matters, in the Peace of Augsburg in 1555, it was agreed that each ruler could decide for himself whether he would be Lutheran or Catholic. All his people had to join his church. Those, who for conscience sake could not change religions, were permitted to leave the country.

"This situation remained, but unsatisfactory,, and in 1618 war broke out between the Emperor who sided with the Pope and the German rulers who had become Lutheran or Reformed. The Protestants were in danger of losing the war, and in 1630 King Gustavus Adolphus of Sweden landed his army in Germany to help the Protestants. There was no clear winner in the war, and it finally ended in 1648 with the treaty known as the Peace of Westphalia. The Protestants could keep their religion and the rulers would decide what religion the area would have. If the ruler changed, the religion sometimes changed also. Many of the Germans who came to America prior to 1850 came because of the resulting religious confusion.

"The devastation that the Thirty Years War (1618-1648) brought on was staggering. Some reports have it that half the population died from fighting, disease and starvation."(1)

Other events which played a part in German migration - "in 1795 Napoleon became general of the French Army. In 1804 he named himself Emperor of France. In 1805 Napoleon defeated Austria and on October 27, 1806 , French troops occupied Berlin, after having defeated the Prussian army.

Germany, before Napoleon, existed un the feudal system. "Before 1806 the Rhineland consisted of numerous petty principalities. Many were amalgamated in 1806 under the French Administration; the Congress of Vienna in 1815 gave the entire territory to Prussia.

" The period after the Napoleonic War witnessed an increased desire by people of Europe for more freedom. ..... The peasants had already largely been freed from the old feudal system but many could not afford to buy their own farms, and jobs were hard to find. At this same time, the factory system was threatening the welfare of the guilds and the draftsmen were restless and worried about their livelihood." (2)

Although Napoleon opened career opportunities to the German people, Germans flocked to the University of Berlin in and attempt to retain their German heritage.

"1816 was the climax of a series of bad years - farms were small because of the law which stipulated that all inheritances be divided among living children, had, over the years, fragmented agricultural land into a multitude of tiny holdings which were often unable to support families which depended on them. Families turned to house industries; such as weaving, straw plaiting and manufacture of wooden tools and clocks. However, these house industries were extremely vulnerable to the factory competition which came with the peace following the Napoleonic Wars. Summer never came in 1816. Hot weather and heavy thunderstorms began in February and in April the weather turned cold and drizzly. May was even colder and wells froze solid. Cloudbursts and hailstorms in June ruined orchards and fields. Older people and children died of chill and hunger. Plagues of mice invaded fields and buildings. From June to September there was rain on over half of the days and before crops which were late could be harvested, October brought on heavy snow. Many sorts of roots, grasses and mosses were eaten - even sawdust was used in preparation of bread.

"Late in 1816 people by thousands began to leave their homes - driven by hopelessness, their destination meant little to the fugitives. Two frontiers - North America and Russia were their goals. An escape route near at hand led to America - as Rhine boatmen encouraged the movement and shippers from America were gratified to find passengers to fill their ships for the return voyage. In April of 1817 many inhabitants of the Trier District were reported to be planning to emigrate to America because of unemployment and famine." (3)

Beginning in 1830 and lasting until 1854 trans-Atlantic migration was all but exclusively to the United States, and almost unsolicited. "Movement between 1830 and 1845 were small farmers who cultivated their own land. They were people who relied on their own skills and wished to do so in the future - who had property that could be turned in cash, they traveled on their own resources.

"Interest in America was whetted by personal letters, travel books and guides. The Germans went to America less to build something new than to regain and conserve something old, which they remembered or thought they did; to till new fields and find new customers, true enough, but ultimately to keep their ways of life they were used to, which the new Europe seemed determined to destroy." (4)

Before 1848 Germany was in a turmoil and revolutionists prepared a new German Constitution. These revolutionists were well-educated and wealthy. However, they would be put in jail for revolting, so they came to America and to the Mid-West. They were of the upper class and made a cultural impact in America, especially in education and medicine.

History tells us "in the decelerating economy of post-Napoleonic area in Germany, there was a surplus of people who were eagerly received by the sparsely populated United States of American. The years of 1846-47 were years not only of potato crop disasters, but also of general crop failure in southwest Germany. In those years emigrants departed precipitously, forced to dispose of whatever they possessed for what they could get to avoid starvation." (5)

Here we would like to enter a statement written by the Schleswig deputy Jakob Gulich (about 1848-1850) - "Neither from a political standpoint nor from the standpoint of the Auswanderer (traveler) himself, but only from the dynastic Hapsburg standpoint can emigration to Hungary be advisable." (6) We include this because of the surname--Gulich--which could be a relative of the Gueligs and Guligs in this genealogy.

Another factor precipitating the emigration of the German people in the 1840's "was the unrest among the German people. Most of the were antagonistic to being governed by Protestant Prussia. They left their homes along the Mosel River between Trier and Koblenz-they looked to the New World to better their economic condition." (7)

Our ancestors turned to farming when they came to Wisconsin, and wheat was the favorite crop. "They had come from the world's finest wine area-but here they did not experiment with viniculture, nor did they seem to prefer drinking wine to beer even when they could afford it." (8)

A description of the land in the Johnsburg area in Fond du Lac County, Wisconsin, where our ancestors settled, is given by Fr. Caspar Rehrl in a letter of Nov. 1845-"the soil is especially productive and needs no fertilizer. I marvel at the excellence of the field and garden produce . . . the cattle, too, take care of themselves. They come home at night after grazing in the meadows . . . the houses are built of logs. In each house is an iron stove which can be bought in any market . . . there is still much government land for sale at $1.25 per state acre . . . there is also a school, a doctor within three miles and a store or provision market where everything necessary can be bought . . . In this place there are no Catholics except Germans . . . after I have acquired a greater proficiency in French, I shall be expected to take personal charge of a new place nearby where there are a number of German and French Catholics.." (9)

It should be said here that although some of the people who came from Germany spoke French, they were of German descent and spoke French because of the Napoleonic influence during the years after the Napoleonic Wars. If you closely examine the copies of some of the certificates (birth, marriage, or death) you will see that some of the wording is French. And who ever heard of a Peter Weinreis being named or called--Pierre?

It is said that by 1850 every German had a relative already in America. Between 1820 and 1930 more that 38,000,000 immigrants poured into the United States from Europe. A quota system was set up in 1920 based on percentage of residents of a particular nationality in this country. Many immigrants did not seek citizenship and therefore, were never naturalized. Immigrants usually settled near others of the same nationality.

After a trip of usually two weeks or longer on the Atlantic Ocean, the immigrants landed in New York. They possibly entered the United States at an old fort at the foot of Manhattan Island, known as Castle Garden, which served as an immigration station. Ellis island served as Immigration Station from 1891 to 1954. From New York they came west to the Territory of Wisconsin. Travel could have been by railroad or by travelling up the Hudson River to the Erie Canal, which was opened in October 1825, then through the Great Lakes to Sheboygan. From Sheboygan to Greenbush, travel was on the old Plank Road. From Greenbush they either walked or took wagons to the Town of Marshfield in Fond du Lac County where they homesteaded.

In 1852 (town of) Marshfield was detached from Calumet and Forest townships and was named Kossuth. Three years later it was changed to Marshfield. The first settler was Stephan Goeser and the next earliest were Anton Kramer, John Loehr and John Fuchs, all of them settled in 1841. The first child born was Joseph Fuchs in 1842, The first marriage was Anton Kramer to Mary Ann Brost on December 13, 1843. First death was that of Joseph Stemp in 1843. In 1847, the Rev Caspar Rehrl taught the first school at Mt. Calvary. In 1850 the first store was opened at Mt. Calvary by M. Bourgeaus. In 1851 John Blonigen established a post office called Moria." (10)

The German immigrants cleared the land for farms. Stones removed from the fields became the walls of the house basements and the first story of the barns. The basements provided frost free storage in winter. Basements had bins for potatoes; root vegetables were stored in sand-filled barrels; on the shelves were jars of canned vegetables, fruits, jams and jellies. Rainwater was use for bathing and for washing clothes and dishes. Water for drinking and cooking came from a well.

It is known that our ancestor, Henry Weinreis came to the United States after 1846 and before the birth of his granddaughter, Anna Weinreis Mengel in 1849. Records show that she was born in Wisconsin, and that her older sister Katherine Weinreis Fisher was born in Germany.

During these years James Polk was president. The Mexican War had been fought, and by the Treaty of 1848, California and vast area of the southwest were ceded to the United States. The lock-stitch sewing machine patented by Elias Howe in 1846 offered the first genuine competition to hand sewing. A rotary press capable of high speed printing was first used at a plant of the Philadelphia Public Ledger in 1847. Brigham Young and his followers of the Church of Latter Day Saints settled in the Salt Lake Valley in 1847. Wisconsin was admitted to the Union on May 29, 1848, and gold was discovered in California in the same year, causing the 1849 California Gold Rush.

The term "German" was introduced to history by Julius Caesar, who rather casually adapted it from a self-descriptive word used by Celtic tribes he encountered west of the Rhine River during his campaigns. (11)

BUSINESS HISTORY OF FOND DU LAC COUNTY - EARLY DAYS TO PRESENT (1905)

Frost Every Month of the Year

Old timers who cultivate the soil have not forgotten the year that there was frost every month. It was 1860, but there have been years besides this that came very near the same result. In 1860, however, there was a frost every month severe enough for the people to know it. The lightest frost wan in August, and the work of that one could be seen on the leaves of the tomatoes and beans. In June and July those who had gardens suffered unless they covered their vegetation. Farmers suffered severely.

By the middle of 1800, the farmer who went to work with a will on his land dug out a comfortable living and found an anxious market for all he had to sell. They had their contentions, of course, and he might be troubled a little at times, to make both ends meet, but in the end he triumphed over all obstacles. Lumber may have been so scarce and high priced when he first came that a board shanty for his family was impossible and had to be content with a hovel constructed of logs or poles, with a trough roof and puncheon* floor, the logs chinked with split sticks and plastered with mud to make it habitable in winter. One of those houses would be a marvel to the present generation, but they served their purpose. The material in these houses was not always the best and often hauled long distances.

During and immediately following the war (Civil) farmers began to realize the value of this part of the state for dairying and stock raising, and these have largely taken the place of the small crops.

A Few Favorable Years

The years 1851. 1867, and 1885, and the present year 1905, were remarkable for rain and wet. In 1851 it was so wet that only oats was got into the ground successfully and that fall oats was sold in Fond du Lac for 8 to 10 cents a bushel. There was an over supply. In 1867 was very wet and in the fall, stacking was so delayed that shocks of wheat were green with sprouts. The corn was drowned out, and barley and oats ruined. In 1885 corn was planted 2 and 3 times, but yet failed. Small grain also failed. The present 1905 year we all know about. Floods and storms have ruled. There have been but a few weeks without storms. During these 50 years there have been other wet seasons, but these are on record.

Snow and Cold

The deep snows were in 1864 and 1882. In 1882 the snow was often banked 12 to 15 feet high and railroad trains were stopped for days at a time.

In 1852, 1864, and 1897 we had intense cold. The cold of 1852 had its worst demonstration at the time of the big fire between 1st and 2nd Streets.

The winter long sleighing was 1869. Beautiful sleighing lasted from the middle of November to the middle of March. In 1883 there was no sleighing at all.

The worst drought was 1877 when almost everything dried out.

* puncheon--1. a short wooden upright, used in structural framing.

2. A piece of board roughly dressed heavy timber, with one face finished flat.

THE WEINREIS FAMILY BEGINNING

The Weinreis Family takes its origin from an area on the West Bank of the Rhine River. The community is "Friesdorf. Today Friesdorf lies between Bonn and Bad Godesberg. Bonn is on the western shore of the Rhine and is the new capital of West Germany. It is in this area that the Rhine River widens out. Both banks broaden out to a flat plain in the general area of Cologne.

The name Cologne comes from the Latin word Colonnia which means Colony. The Romans established a large colony at this point in the Rhine before the time of Christ. Friesdorf dates from theses Roman Colonies as well. Fifty kilometers southwest of Bonn and Friesdorf we find the Eifel Region. This is the highest point west of the Rhine in Germany. This is the area the Gulig (Guelig) family came from. The Weinreis and Gulig families, so far as we know, met in Wisconsin. The Gulig (Guelig) family arrived in the United States in 1846, and Weinreis family arrived in New York on May 29, 1848, the very day that Wisconsin became the 30th of the United States.

ARRIVAL VERIFICATION

After traveling to the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh, the compiler was successful in finding the "Intent of Citizenship" paper for John Weinreis (1812-1906). A photo copy follows showing that he arrived in May of 1848.

Then we asked the Sheboygan County Historical Research Center to obtain the reel of microfilm of the Port of New York ships which arrived in April, May and June of 1848. Taking Great Grandpa's word for it, we searched the May arrivals first. Of course the arrivals of May 29th were at the end of the reel, and what a joy and pleasure it was to find the following:

Name of Ship: ADELAIDE

Ship's Master: Morgensen

Port of Departure: Antwerp

Date of Arrival-New York: May 29, 1848.

Among the steerage passengers were:

J. Weinreis---36
Margaret " ---33
Henry " ---7
Peter " ---6
Catherine "---3

Following the name of Catherine were two other names, barely if not impossible to identify. They seemed to be Elizabeth --- 30, and Gertrude --- 22. We are quite certain that the Gertrude was the one who married John Morgen. Their family, of course, is detailed in this genealogy.

In checking passenger lists at the Sheboygan Library, we also found a Heinrich Weinreis who emigrated to Wisconsin on the ship, Columbus, from Antwerp on 31 May 1852. He was the only Weinreis listed, and we believe him to be the Father of John and Gertrude Weinreis. We know that he was a widower when he came to the United States, his wife, Elizabeth had died on 12 Aug 1834. Henry is buried at the Catholic Cemetery in Johnsburg, WI.

CHANGING TIMES IN THE UNITED STATES DURING THE SPAN OF THIS HISTORY

James Polk was president of the United States (1845-1849). He was the 11th President. In 1848 Wisconsin became the 30th state to join the Union.

Zachary Taylor was the 12th president (1849-1850). He died in office in 1850.

Millard Fillmore was president (1850-1853). He was the 13th president. There were 31 states in the Union at this time.

Harriet Beecher Stowe wrote "Uncle Tom's Cabin" which was published in 1852 in Boston.

The Republican Party was organized Feb. 28, 1854 at Ripon, WI by a coalition of Whigs, Free Sailors and other anti slavery elements.

Trouble was brewing between the Northern States and the Souther States about the slavery issue and Civil War began Apr. 12, 1861 when the Confederates fired on Fort Sumter. During 1861 ten southern states seceded from the Union. The death toll of the Civil War which lasted from April 12, 1861 to April 9, 1865 was the greatest this nation has ever seen.

1869 saw the first transcontinental link, that of the Union Pacific and Central Pacific railroads.

1871 was the year of the Chicago and Peshtigo fires.

A patent for the telephone was issued to Alexander Graham Bell in 1876 and Thomas Alva Edison perfected the electric light in 1879.

Horse drawn carriages were replaced by the invention of gasoline powered vehicles in 1892. With this came the paving of mud roads.

During the time of this history:

transportation included horse drawn carriages, trains, buses, trolley cars, airplanes, and space ships which have taken men to the moon and back.

This nation has seen during the span of this family history:

6 wars:--Civil War (1861-1865); Spanish-American War (1898); World War I (1979-1918); World War II (1941-1945); Korean War (1950-1953) and Vietnam War (1965-1973)

4 presidents assassinated -- Lincoln 1865; Garfield 1881; McKinley 1901; and Kennedy 1963

the resignation of one president - Nixon in 1974

inventions of telephone, telegraph, electricity, radio, television, computer

Prohibition amendment passed in 1919 and repealed in 1933

the stock market crash in 1929 - and has weathered the depression which followed the longest presidential term - Franklin D. Roosevelt - 1932-1945 the devastation of the Atom Bomb - 1945

the creation of the hydrogen bomb - 1951

the launching of satellites into space

10 World Fairs - New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Buffalo, St. Louis, San Francisco, Seattle, Spokane, Knoxville and New Orleans

the conquering of Polio with the Salk vaccine

the great earthquake of San Francisco in 1906

the national deficit rise to beyond all comprehension

Welfare Benefits get out of hand

SUSAN WEINREIS
m. Fred Gulig

Susan Weinreis b. 24 May 1879 d. 31 Aug 1944 Lived-Fond du Lac, WI
m. Fred Gulig 16 Apr 1901 - son of Hubert & Gertrude Konz (Euhl) Guelig
b. 14 Oct 1875 d. 11 Mar 1931

Witnesses were Louis Guelig and Anna Weinreis

When Fritz and Susan were married, they moved to Kekoskee, WI where they operated a tavern that they bought from the Winkels who were in the liquor business. Mrs. Tony Winkel is a sister to Fritz. Fritz hated the tavern business, so he asked his father in law, John Weinreis, to help them get out of the business. A real estate man in Fond du Lac was contacted and finally they traded the tavern for some land in the northern part of Wisconsin, no buildings and all that forest. That did not help much and again Susan's father came to the rescue and found a place in North Dakota, but they all hated it there. Times were hard, but the folks managed to make a living on the farm. They did get enough money together to buy a Ford. The winters were so long and severe. Blizzards would last for days. Fritz had to tie a rope from the house to the barn, otherwise he would not get back to the house. The sand storms in the summertime were so severe, you could not see ahead, and the sand got into the house. After four years everyone had enough of the conditions and longed to get back to Wisconsin. Again Grandpa Weinreis came to the rescue and somehow traded the Dakota property for a good farm in Lamartine, WI, 7 miles west of Fond du Lac. The family was happy there; and managed to make some money. When the Weinreis grand parents became to old to work the family farm in Johnsburg, they wanted Fritz and Susan to buy the farm which they did. But soon afterward Susan's health became poor and Fritz sold the farm. The family then moved to Fond du Lac and there they lived for their remaining years.

(The above was related to the compiler by Adelaide Aigner, daughter of Fritz and Susan.)

m. Dennis Gensch 1 Jul 1967 - son of Howard & Eleanor Herald
b. 18 Jun 1941 Gensch

1974 was an eventful year for Dennis and Sharon. That is the time that they decided to move back to the Milwaukee area. Dennis had been teaching at the University of Pittsburgh from 1967-70 and at Carnegie-Mellon University 1969-74. He joined the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in June 1974, where he went on to become a full Professor with an endowed chair in Marketing.

Leaving Pittsburgh was not particularly graceful. Three strikes were in progress, the movers, the newspapers, and the caterers at the airport. They were forced to find a moving company in another county; they could not advertise or sell their home themselves, nor could a realtor. Sharon, practically nine months pregnant, and their son, Shawn flew out of Pittsburgh on one of the last flights before the airport closed. After the moving van left, Dennis drove the 64 VW loaded with plants and Erin sprouting a 103 degree fever. They were stopped in Indiana for speeding. Dennis was explaining about the three year old girl with a high temp, when she joined in the conversation by adding, "Dad, tell the fat guy that his hat is rolling away." No ticket.

Through the Klapperichs Larry and I are first cousins once removed.

I don't know about the Joseph or Mathias Hemann you write about. The birthdates you gave are those of John Peter Huemann and Katherine Baur. John Peter, born 1795, is the only child I know about of Peter Huemann and Maria Katherine Nett.

If you are interested in Barbara Bell Klapperich's father, John Joseph Bell, I found his tombstone this spring at Charlesburg, WI, in the St. Charles Cemetery. He is in the third row north of the church and third from the west fence. He had 67.36 acres in the Township of New Holstein, Calumet County. This is only a little over a mile down the road from the church at Marytown where Barbara and Michael Klapperich were married.

Talked to Gene Noterman in Adams last week. He told me that Sylvester had died, but he didn't know the date.

That's about all for now. Take care.

Dear Mary,

My apologies for not getting back to you sooner about any Hemann reunions. We are not aware of any being held this year. Last fall there was one for the John E. and Theresa (Steiger) Hemann descendants - first cousins only were invited. We went to it as Larry is a grandson of the J. & T. Hemanns. Two years previous, a reunion was held with all descendants invited, which we feel is the way it should be. One of our sons is quite interested in family history and did attend the first reunion. If you could give me more information about any family ties of your maternal great-grandmother, perhaps I could find which of the many Hemann families she may have been a part of.

John E. Hemann was born at McHenry, Ill. March 3, 1859. He married Theresa Steiger Feb. 12. 1884.

John E. Hemann's father was Joseph Hiimann (not spelling) who was born in Hirten, Kreis Mayen on Feb. 3. 1831. John's mother was Adelaide Benoelken born in Germany in 1834.

John E. had a half-brother & half-sisters (Christina Zervers) who married in the Meyer-McIntire, Iowa area. Some of their married names would in include Hoffman (Casper) (Margaret +); Wagner (Joe) (Kathryn +), Neis (Frank) (Elizabeth +); Erpelding) Nick. (Louisa +)

Maybe some of those names would help in identifying where your relative fit in.

John E.'s half-brother Peter T. Hemann married Elizabeth Steiger.

Joseph Hiiman had a brother Mathias Hiiman from whom the "Stacyville Hemanns" descended & don't really call the "Meyer-McIntire" Hemanns relatives. (— too distant)

II

don't know about

Joseph and Mathias parents were
Johann Peter Hüman and Maria
(22 Feb - 1795)
Catharina Nett both born at Hiten,
(10 April, 1798)
Kreis Mayen, Germany.

Keith Bauer Date

most of these people came to Iowa from Mc Henry, Il. after coming to America in mid-eighteen hundreds. Johann & Catharina are buried at McHenry Il. I don't know what info you have on your maternal great-grandmother, but the about may help place her in one of these families.

Stella passed away on April 1st at the nursing home at Nevada, Mo.. She fell and broke her hip, pelvis and femur in mid February & it was all downhill since. We were down for the funeral, and one time since then. Her family asked us to come down to go through some of her personal belongings not put on her sale last summer.

This Spring has been difficult for farmers - not only here but throughout Iowa - Missouri & for friends living near Omaha. We have had 16 inches of rain since April 6th & more storms on the way. Larry & some buddies left this morning to fish in Canada for about a week. Two of my sisters living nearby will go up to S.E. Minnesota where we grew up & visit family & perhaps prowl through a few cemeteries to gain a bit of info from them.

Thanks for your offer of information from your data base. I appreciate that & may take you up on it at some point.

Sincerely,

Rosemary Hemann

P.S. You are correct in stating that Duane Thebes never married Sandy Jones, mother of Kristine.

Hello Mary,

Sorry this is so late in getting to you. So many things have happened causing my attention to be elsewhere. The copies didn't come off very well because I had my originals in pencil. I don't have many things copied off so wasn't aware they wouldn't come off clear.

Stella is in a nursing home in Nevada, Missouri now & not doing the best. Sylvester fell this past fall - was in Rochester for two weeks and is now in the Riceville Nursing Home for rehab. Hopefully he will be able to return to their home in a couple weeks.

Center defends actions after escape

By Mike Hoeft
For The Post-Crescent

There was no lapse in security when two people, one from Waupaca, broke out of the Brown County Mental Health Center on Christmas Day and led police on a 36-mile chase, a county official said.

"I don't know what more we could have done, except to have one-on-one monitoring," said Mark Quam, Brown County Human Services director.

Nevertheless, the state is expected to investigate the Dec. 25 incident to make sure there were no regulatory violations.

A mental health center must be safe, said Sue Schroeder, director of the state Bureau of Quality Assurance.

"Psychiatric hospitals are indeed hospitals, not jails," she said. "It's wise to keep in mind that it is a licensed hospital and its purpose is to provide medical care."

Gary Rockman, 18, was transferred to the center Sunday from the Menominee County Jail and was under a suicide watch.

At 9:12 p.m., Rockman broke a window and jumped 10 to 12 feet to the ground, police said.

Candice Stevens of Waupaca, 20, who also was being treated in the psychiatric wing, followed him out of the window.

The two then stole a pickup truck. Police pursued the truck south on U.S. 41 into Outagamie County. Stop sticks were tried unsuccessfully at three different intersections.

Stevens was driving when the truck struck a snowbank at Outagamie County S and Wisconsin 76 near Stephensville. A minute later, they were captured.

Rockman was charged Tuesday in Brown County Circuit Court with criminal damage to property and being party to car theft. Stevens was charged with fleeing and being party to car theft.

Hi Mary,

Are you getting any snow and Cold weather also.

Enclosed is the clipping from Pauline's ~~wedding~~ funeral. I thought maybe you needed it for your family tree.

Their son Bob is the oldest, then their son Gene Jr is next. Their daughter Shirley is the youngest. I see the clipping has it listed as the daughter of Arnold and Maria Stephani. That is the first time I ever heard her Mother's name as Maria. I always thought it was Mary. I guess we learn something new each day.

Not much news around here.

Take care.

"Marion Body Works has been an important part of Marion and I am in favor of keeping them here," said Ned Nehring, 211 SE First St.

The company has also worked with Kenosha and Fond du Lac county governments.

Ted Lassar, president of Tariff Patrol, said about 90 percent of businesses have errors in their phone bills, but less than 0.002 percent of those billing errors are found and reported by cus-

"There may not be a huge need for it if they have only given about 10 tickets," Evers said. "I don't think it should be enforced unless it gets out of control and there is vandalizing."

Evers said a fine of $221 is high for a college student.
